

1882 - 1982 SENATH CENTENNIAL

...O. H. Stonom is having a fine new fence built in front of his residence in the west part of town.

...Don't fail to visit J. L. Davis' music store. No home is complete without a good piano. He sells them on easy terms. L. B. Bohanan, Salesman.

...Mrs. J. T. Ricketts, wife of the pastor of the Methodist Church, was stricken with a severe pain in her spine and head last Friday afternoon but the attending physicians now report her condition as improving.

...We were at the expense of $200 to furnish: the people clean and sanitary groceries, free from dirt and bugs, roaches, mice and so on. Please come in and inspect our stock of groceries - J. T. Karnes.

...Misses Jessie and Bessie Lambert of Benton spent Saturday night here with their brother and wife, Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Lambert at Hotel Bertha. Another brother, Claude L. Lambert of St. Louis, was also visiting here so the sisters came to visit them both.

...STRAYED - one large Jersey cow; muley, of yellow color with dark face. No marks of identification, except has false teat on back of udder. Will pay a reward for information leading to her recovery. Rev. E. E. Burton, Senath, Rt. 1.

...J. N. O'Connor has our thanks for subscription favors this week. He also renewed the subscription of his sister, Agnes

Davis of Stonton, Tenn.

...Cecil McDaniel, son of W. W. McDaniel, returned home last week from a trip of several months in Florida and other Southern States.

...Buy dance records now at Owl Drug Store.

...If you want a square meal call on W. J. (Bill) Milam. A good meal can always be had at his place. A trial will convince you.

A full page Red Cross War Fund ad was paid for by Citizens Bank of Senath, Bank of Senath, Karnes Mercantile, Highfill Mercantile, Caneer Store, Petty Store (of Senath and Octa), J. L. Davis - Gen. Merchandise, W. Williamson Hardware, Caneer Drug Store, Williams Drug Store, Owl Drug Store, O. H. Storey Merc. Co., Davenport Bros. - Gen. Merchandise, The Alle Store - Gen. Merchandise, J. T. Karnes Grocery, Parker and Chaney Grocery, Holden and Butler Bakery, J. N. O'Connor Meat Market, McDaniel's Furniture House, E. W. Poe Furniture, Lupo Sanitary Shop, Hartsoe's Barber Shop, Bohannon's Barber Shop, W. J. Milam's Restaurant, Bragg's Cafe, Hotel Bertha, Scott Booker Box Ball, Dr. P. L. Tipton, Dr. F. W. Speidel, L. B. Motsinger Jeweler, Mrs. L. A. Montgomery - Millinery, Krone's Garage, Senath Auto Tire Shop, Parker Auto Repair Shop, Palmer the Tailor, Haislip's Tailor Shop, and Ben Hirschowitz - Famous Bargain Store.

THREE EARLY SENATH PAPERS HAD SLOGANS:

SENATH WEEKLY STAR: "We do Printing - A little better than average".

THE SENATH HUSTLER: "Hew to the line, let the chips fall where they may."

THE TOWN TATTLER: (Printed in 1937) "Printed occasionally on Thursday by the Senath printer. If you don't like it - it didn't cost you anything."

Do You Remember

...The first show at the Dixie Theater "starting in fifteen minutes" and starring Rudolf Valentino and Bebe Daniels in 'The Shiek'?

...The Allen Brothers Tent Shows and the Princess Stock Company?

...Mrs. Montgomery's "Little America"?

...Highfill Mercantile? Howard Bailey's radio station above the Hines' Ford garage?

...When the new highway No. 25 came through town in 1922?

...Lyle Richmond and the Senath Band?

...Old Taylor and the scavenger wagon?

...Doug and Newt, the ice men?

...The big fires?

...Euther Bird's Garage, west of Green's Service Station?

...The split school term when students returned to school in July and August and were dismissed to pick cotton during September and October?

Do you remember the J. M. Baird home? It was built in the early 1900s about where Maude Sherrod's home is now located.