

Do you remember any of these pioneers? This picture was taken in 1949 and featured in the November 25, 1949 Pioneer Appreciation issue of the Dunklin County Press. The picture was taken in the Richmond Theatre. Pictured are: (L to r) first row - J. C. Maxwell, F. M. Moore, W. S. Parker, A. P. Blankenship, T. E. Johnson, Turner Brown, D. A. Alexander, W. T. Ford; second row - W. H. George, Tom C. Johnston, H. M. Walls, M. J. Long, Cal Dailey, A. A. McIntosh, Andrew Beights, Dr. F. W. Spiedel; third row - J. C. Bost, John J. McCord, A. Karnes, Louis Johnson, Henry Seabaugh, J. H. Hay, E. E. Norris, Dave W. George, Frank N. White, C. W. Doherty, Rev. A. M. Braden; fourth row - C. W. Davidson, Nath C. Wilson, J. C. Bohannon, Rev. Sam. Bullington, Sam C. Hooper, Jim R. Curry, J. Henry Weaver, W. H. Compton, Arthur French, John Monroe, Dave Jennings; fifth row - W. R. Harkey, T. W. Teaver, D. T. Brydon, Willis W. Williams, S. T. Jennings, Henry D. Starnes, Charley A. Baugus; back row - R. E. (Bud) Gooch, J. Walt Richards, Albert Biggs, Jess Bowman. Also attending the gathering, but arriving too late to be pictured were: A. J. Vaughn, Tom C. Landreth, C. H. Emery, G. G. Moore, J. B. Mills, J. C. Wood, W. T. Caneer, W. R. Pulley, W. C. Brown, J. W. Phillips, J. S. Harkey, J. A. Pyle, C. A. Davis, W. R. Powers, C. A. Mize, G. W. Krone, T. G. Smith, U. H. Derryberry, Oscar L. Hayes, A. T. Douglass, J. J. Battles, J. M. Osman and J. H. Bohannon.

DO YOU REMEMBER . .

- ...The "moose" - a streetcar-type railroad passenger vehicle which ran several times a day?*
- ...Standing on the railroad right-of-way and letting the smoke "get you" when the train passed?*
- ...Walking the rails on the railroad track?*
- ...Going to the midnight ramble?*
- ...The Junior and Senior Class plays at school?*

- ...Your Senior Trip?*
- ...Saturday night in the fall of the year when everyone came to town, and the streets were so crowded one could hardly walk on the sidewalks?*
- ...Going to Midway for 50c worth of gas?*
- ...Seeing your first automated cotton picker?*
- ...Mrs. Baughn's basketball teams?*