

Douglass Home

Do you remember this home?

Asenath Douglass first received in this home, the mail from the rider who came through on the road from Cotton Plant. It was put in a homemade pigeonhole for pickup by the townspeople.

Mrs. Douglass, we are told, also 'put up' the visiting preachers who came to hold services in the union church.