

HENRY BROWN FAMILY REFURNISHED BY RED CROSS

The Henry Brown family of near Blodgett is now completely rehabilitated with funds that were furnished by the Red Cross. The Loren Hargraves family is in no condition to go back to housekeeping as yet, so they have not been provided for. The houses occupied by the Brown and Hargraves families were blown away in a recent cyclone that visited the Cary Mills section, Mrs. Brown and two of the Hargraves children having lost their lives.

LAMBERT NEWS

Cletus Scherer, who lives below town, was sick but is up now.

Wheat and rye look mighty good in the farming section near here.

Poultry and cream are coming in very satisfactorily at the buying station here.

F. X. Schwartz of New Hamburg was here Monday with some cream for the local station.

A large crowd was at Lambert last Saturday to attend the auction that was being put on by Ben Barworth.

Roads leading out of here are in bad shape, with the exception of 55, and branches off of that south and north are not good.

Friends here of Ileen Atherton Skipper sympathize with her in the death of her mother, Mrs. Mary Atherton, at Morley. Mrs. Skipper was a clerk in Ben Barworth's store a few years ago.
