

while the other would represent nearly all the hill country, and each of them would be more useful to his own people.

I have been led to this conclusion by the fact that as the county is now divided it frequently happens that a voter at one end of a district is not acquainted with the candidate from the other end— even by name. If any reader of the NEWSBOY thinks I am wrong, let him point out my error.

ECONOMY

— The Commerce people re-elected their old Town Board.

(From Oran)

Dr. Clark and the electric belt man and wife went to Commerce Monday. They can make good music and don't you forget it.

— Mrs. Lucy Bugg, wife of Judge W. H. Bugg, of Morley township, died on Wednesday of last week.

— Married, by Judge Leedy, in Benton, March 30, 1894, Miss Julia Wallace to Mr. John Wallace, both of Little River.

He Needed More Execution

“If you have any last wish,” said the priest to the convicted man on the scaffold, “tell me and I will try to carry it out.”

“Yes,” replied the poor wretch, “I want to learn to play the piano.” — Texas Siftings

FROM THE SCOTT COUNTY KICKER dated January 21, 1911:

MARRIAGE LICENSE

Jesse Gross, Edna.

Miss Mary Poorman, Edna.

Chas. L. Reeves, Illmo.

Miss Eva G. Driebebis, Illmo.

Guy A. Alburn, Mayfield, Ind.

Miss Effie M. Hale, Oran.

FROM ANCEL.

Chris Heiserer, our road boss, with the help of others tore the post out of the public road, known as the rock levy. The post had been put there by the order of the Cape Girardeau and Thebes Bridge Terminal Railroad Company.

Mrs. G. W. Greer returned home from St. Louis last week, where she had been visiting relatives. She came home sick but is able to (be) up at this writing.

G. W. Greer returned to work at the round house at Fornfelt after being off for two weeks on account of sickness.

Paul Lipps, of Ancel, and Tony Burger, of Kelso, made a flying trip to the Cape last week.

Mr. and Mrs. E. P. Ellis, of the Cape, visited Mr. and Mrs. Steve Chamberlain Sunday.

Lawrence Scherer and his girl were seen driving through here Sunday.

Dr. Hartle was called to see C. H. Greer, of near Commerce, Friday.

Owing to cold bad weather the wheat in this locality is looking very bad.

Lorenz Seyer made a business trip to Gray's Point Saturday.

R. B. Daugherty, of Macedonia, visited P. E. Daugherty Sunday.