

HERE AND YONDER

Charles Reeves and Miss Eva Dieovers were married at the home of the groom's parents at Graysboro, by Rev. Williams of Chaffee, Saturday evening.

FROM ORAN

R. M. Finley, of Benton, purchased several head of Jersey cattle from Wm. Stone, who is preparing to move to Texas.

J. B. Finley, who has been confined to his bed most of the time for the past six weeks, is seen on our streets again.

FROM BUCKEYE

Frank Severs died Saturday at 9 o'clock from blood poison. His remains were taken to Idalia for interment.

The infant of Therin Elliot died Saturday and was buried at the Armor grave-yard Sunday.

Jess Walker sold his possessions to James Beal and will leave.

FROM LONE ROCK

Mr. William Pobst, Sr. died of pneumonia last Wednesday and was burried in the Catholic cemetary at Oran Thursday.

CARD OF THANKS.

Thru the press we desire to express our appreciation and thanks to friends and neighbors and the Odd Fellows lodge and W. O. O. who were so kind and helpful to us during the recent illness and death of our beloved husband and father.

Mary Weber and Children.

FROM THE SCOTT COUNTY KICKER dated January 6, 1917:

FROM FORNFELT

Ross Redman died at his home in Fornfelt Friday. He was about 40 years old and leaves a widow and five children. The burial was at Illmo.

FROM ELLIS.

Wm. Hawkins went to the Cape Saturday to buy old Santa Claus out, and Arthur Schivitz visited him Sunday to see how he had succeeded.

Jake Wilkerson butchered Monday. For safe-keeping he will probably have to deposit the meat in the bank.

Miss Ara Miller spent Sunday with her cousins, the Misses Myriam and Georgie Smith.

Loyd Smith, who is attending high school at Fornfelt, visited home folks Sunday.

On the 12th Leonard Spradlin joined the navy, where he must remain four years.

Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Miller spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Jess Spradlin.

The ice in the river is said to have stopped the ferry at Commerce.

Ed. Garvey and family visited their grand children at Kelso Sunday.

It was Anton Ziegler's birthday Sunday and he got a black face.

Jess Spradlin and Eliza Gibson are reported sick.

FROM MORLEY.

Miss Ruth, the 19 year old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. F. M. Lauderdale, died Monday and was buried Tuesday.

It is now promised that our electric lights will be in operation by the middle of January.