

Mission and Role of Historical Societies

Many historical societies make these collections available through on-site, on-line and inter-library loan resources. The types of services historical societies provide include:

- Public lectures
- Seminars
- Conferences
- Consulting services
- Arrange school and general group tours
- Support scholarly research
- Maintain museums of changing, permanent, and traveling exhibitions
- Operate a research library
- Publish books, magazines, and newsletters

