

Strategy for Searching Societies and Libraries

Step 3. Search Family History Files and Published Biographies and Genealogies.

The Family History Files contain unpublished notes and charts on lineages specific to the state, region, local and compiled by other genealogists.

Step 4. Check Books on State and Local History

A wealth of genealogical information is contained in books on state and local history.