

Where is the Best Place to Get Information?

- The same records are often available in different locations.
- Make sure you ask the cost of acquiring such records.

On a recent trip I found that a marriage record from the early 1800's would cost me $10.00 at the university library. The same information was available at the state archive for the cost of a photocopy.

