

Photographing in Museums and Archives

- Check first to see if photography is allowed.
- Objects covered with glass or plastic are best shot at angle.
- Snap a separate picture of a caption or a label of the exhibit.
- Use the tripod along with your camera's self-timer night/lowlight setting.
- No tripod? Then brace yourself.

