

During the years of 1949-50 the interior of the chapel was remodeled and a Church School Annex was built. New pews were donated by individuals.

The most important things the officials, pastors and charter members brought with them to the new church were brotherly love, spirituality, peace and harmony. We can hear the echo of their prayers. That atmosphere still exists. Yes - they brought God with them. His Spirit still dwells there, to own and bless