

Last Rites for Mrs. S. Cisney

County Resident Since
1903 Dies; Ill a Year

COLERIDGE—Funeral services were held at the Methodist church here last Thursday afternoon for Mrs. Sidney Cisney, 67, who died at the Tri-State Nursing Home December 14. She had been ill about a year with dropsy.

Rev. R. O. Louthan officiated at the final rites and burial was in the Coleridge cemetery. Pallbearers were L. B. Yost, George Bohlken, Bill Sassaman, Gene Peck, Bill Hansen and Ed Friedrichs.

Mrs. Cisney is survived by her husband; one daughter, Mrs. Grace Anderson of Laurel; four sons, Stephen S. of Bakersfield, Calif., Lesile M., and Donald B., of Jefferson, S. D., and Giles S. of Wakefield; ten grandchildren and four great grandchildren.

A native of Iowa, Emma Jane Henderson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Giles Henderson, was born in Woodbury county. At the age of eleven she moved with her parents to Tennessee. Six years later, in 1903, she came to Cedar county and lived on a farm north of Coleridge. She was married at her home February 23, 1904 to Sidney Cisney. She spent her married life on a farm near here until about ten years ago when she moved to Coleridge.

Friends and relatives from a distance who attended the funeral included Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Pope and daughter, Dixie, of Emerson; Darrell Anderson of Lincoln; Mr. and Mrs. James Hamilton of Newcastle; Mrs. Eric Henderson, Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Van Kirk, Fay Roberts and Ernest Cisney of Randolph; Mrs. W. L. Roberts and son, Will, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Cisney of Sioux City and Maurice Anderson of Wayne.
