WYNOT PIONEER IS BURIED TUESDAY

of he an

on

N.

th tiz ity

co

ho

tevens, S. D., Monday

Puneral services were held on Tuesday afternoon at Wynot for James 1. Tafgart, pioneer resident of that vicinity, who died at the home of his sister. Mrs. Eunice Hammond of Stevens, S. D., on the Minday of the week before

Monday of the week before Taggart- died on Monday morning, June 13. following a lingering illness. He had been residing pr several sic at his sister's home for weeks. Taggart Leonard James was born on March 14, 1854 at Man-effecter, N. H. When he was still a young man he came west to Sioux City. In the early seventies he was employed on the grading me gang of a proposed railroad that an was to have been built from Sioux ni City to Ponca, St. James and Nio- m brara. The grade of this proposed th road was partially completed in gr Dukota, Dixon, Cedar and Knox, counties but the road was only we completed as far as Ponca. When se the project collapser Mr. Taggart he was with several of the workmen at, we

St. James and he continued make his home there. in mar-He was later united ringe to Miss Olleo Hay, a member m this union was born two children. of Broken cr Mrs. William Brown

Mr. Taggart was married to Clara May Hoover, who proceeded him in death several years ago. Five chil-dren were born to this union. They are Walter, Mrs. Lewis Jones, James, Nancy and Florence, all of

The late Mr. Taggart is survived by his seven children, 15 grandchildren, three great-grandchildren and one sister, Mrs. Hammond.

Wynot.

The body was Wynot was burial was made beside his wife in the Wynot cemetery. Short servic- |c| es were conducted at the grave by Rev. H. R. Gregerson, pastor of the Trinity Lutheran church, at Hartington.