We are offering a full color, two dimensional wooden replica of the Hagadorn House —perfect for a gift or for your own personal keepsake. This shelf sitter measures about 5 1/2 x 3 1/2 x 3/4 and is designed to rest on the edge of a shelf or table top, or even over a doorway.

AHS NOTEBOOK

WITH 45+ BACK ISSUES OF AHS NEWSLETTER - $75

This three-ring binder features a full size color photo of the Hagadorn House Museum on the cover. Inside are some 30 photos of many buildings no longer existing: Old Almond School, Budd Block, Kellogg's Country Store, Baptist Church, Methodist Church, Almond Hardware, Erie RR Depot, The Old Stone House, Mabel McIntosh and Duane Dennison in the old telephone office, vintage views of Almond, as well as other familiar places. An excerpt from John Reynolds' book, THE ALMOND STORY, is included. You may purchase the book including issues from 1997 to present of the AHS newsletter, or just the notebook with photos.
