Nancy Elizabeth "Ma"<sup>3</sup> HIGGINS (Elijah<sup>2</sup>, John<sup>1</sup>) (Source: (1) Personal research of Patricia Wilson Spradley, Mazle Duggin Campbell, 26 Apr 1998 Phone Interview, Mazle Duggin says that "Ma" Wilson was loved by all of her grandchildren and they all loved going to visit her. Nancy Higgins Wilson was left a widow was carrying her youngest child Lovie when Sam B. Wilson died. She was very poor and had very strong religious beliefs. She raised her daughter Nolie's twin girls until they started school. Nolie died when the twins were born. Ma lived with her daughter Mattie in little house on Tommy Alexander's farm after Mattie's husband James "Jim" Frances died. They migrated to Slaughters, KY sometime after 1920 when Mattie's boys decided to take their uncle Mike's advise and move there to make a better living. That is where Ma Wilson passed away. Mazle remembers Ma telling the kids about gathering wood one winter after Sam B. died. They put a big log on the fire and a big snake crawled out of it onto the hearth. We bet they all scattered!
