The book number is not noted but pages are 494/495: Bryson Heirs to Arbitration State of Tennessee by Heirs of Joseph Bryson dec'd We the undersigned arbitrators appointed the the Heirs of Joseph Bryson dec'd to settle all matters in dispute after being duly sworn do make the following report answering his estate that we proceeded to divide the land according to the will. Lot No 1 Valued to Samuel B. Bryson at twelve dollars & 75 cents per acre and suppose to be about two hundred and nine acres. Lot No 2 Valued to Jane Bryson wife of Joseph Bryson at ten dollars per acre supposed to be about one hundred and twenty three acres. Lot No 3 Valued to Martha Wilson wife of Michael Wilson at five dollars and fifty ct per acre suppose to be about 92 acres. Lot No 4 Valued to Mary Davenport at ten dollars and fifty cents per acre suppose to be 43 1/2 acres . We also find that Michael Wilson is indebted to the estate one thousand dollars which is set off according to the will. We also find William Davenport indebted to the estate the amount of Eight hundred dollars and twelve dollars & 70 cents. We find the estate indebted to the amount of several hundred dollars & no available means to pay and will have to be paid out of the land to decide that the excutor Samuel B. Bryson pay the outstanding debts and on final settlement or at the death of the widow he be allowed six percent his money so advanced. We further decide that SB Bryson make no further advances having the largest proportion of lands after the death of the widow. Then the heirs will make a final settlement according to the will and this award we decide that the executors pay cut of this arbitration out of the estate. Given under our hand and deal this 16th January 1868. Henry Davenport A.S. McKnight C.B. Odom Jesse Carter Filed at office the 28 April at 1 O'clock PM 1868 J.D. McBroom Registrar., (10) Tennessee State Library & Archives, Cannon Co., TN Deeds - Vol: 1-2 Apr 1836 - Nov 1917, Some of the prior land deeds involving Michael & Martha may have been due to her father's estate settlement. Joseph Bryson died in 1865. His wife, Sarah Bogle Bryson died in 1868. Joseph's will states that his land and dwelling was to remain in his wife's possession until her death. After her death his son Sam'l B. Bryson would have the tract on which the dwelling house stands. The balance would go to dau's Martha Wilson & Polly Davenport to be divided to the best advantage. He noted that he held notes, accounts and credits on Michael Wilson & Wm. Davenport which must be counted as a seloff in the division of property., (11) National Archives, Washington, DC, *1880 Cannon Co. No court records have to found to provide any details. I received in the mail today the Convict Record from the Tennessee Penitentiary for W.P. Fann from the Tenn. State Library and Archives. Name: W.P. Fann Record #: 847 Color: W County: Cannon Court: Supreme Crime: Murder in the 1st Degree When Received: Feb. 15, 1902 Date of Sentence: Dec. Term 1901 Term Years: 16 Age Years: 50 Height: 5ft 8 1/4 inches Weight: 177 lbs Color of Eyes: Blue Color of Hair: Black Complexion: Dark Marks: Moles on face, Sink in top of head, Scar on both knees. Station in Life: M (Married) Where Born: Tenn. Trade: Blacksmith Education: None Religion: None Remarks: Escaped from Pumping Station Jan. 2, 1910. Returned voluntarily to Prison from Woodbury, Tenn. Jan 13, 1910. Sentence commuted to 11 years by Gov.Patterson, Jan.6, 1911. Note: Handwritten at the bottom of the record: Wife, Caroline Fann, Woodbury, Tenn. I had earlier received an e-mail from the Library that there should have been a file with the court proceedings but that it was not present. The researcher indicated that in early years such files were often taken by lawyers for review or some reasonable purpose but never returned to the prison. Even the researcher commented that this is one file she would even like to see. The record above in its original handwriting by the prison clerk is all that the Archives has on W.P.Fann per this researcher.
