OBITUARY—Mrs. Lem Potter

Mrs. Lem Potter, 64, passed away at her home in Emerson early Monday. Death followed a lingering illness.

Funeral services were held in the Presbyterian church in Emerson on Wednesday, Oct. 6, with Rev. Chas. Rabenberg officiating. Mrs. F. A. Mieras, with Mrs. A. H. McGath as accompanist, sang "Safe in the Arms of Jesus" and "The Old Rugged Cross." Pallbearers were J. A. Gamet and Harold Moseman of Emerson, and Paul Erickson, Robert Miner, Anton Holmberg and Carl Martinson of Wakefield.

Interment was in the Wakefield cemetery, under direction of the Demme Mortuary.

Frankye Belle Henderson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Giles Henderson, was born at Smithland, Ia., on October 29, 1883, and passed away on October 4, 1948, at the age of 64 years, 11 months and 5 days.

On December 29, 1904, she was married to Lemuel Potter at Hartington. They lived in various parts of Nebraska, and for the past three years had made their home in Emerson.

Surviving are the widower, Lemuel Potter, of Emerson; two daughters, Mrs. Goldie Sweeney of Kent, Wash., and Mrs. Beatrice Pope of Emerson; one sister, Mrs. Sidney Cisney of Coleridge; two grandchildren, Dean Love of Delavon, Wis., and Dixie Pope of Emerson, and many nieces and nephews.
